

STARCK PARIS PERFUMES

PEAU DE NUIT INFINIE AND PEAU DE LUMIERE MAGIQUE

Two new fragrances are joining Peau de Soie, Peau de Pierre and Peau d'Ailleurs in the Starck Paris Peau perfume collection.

The PEAU DE NUIT INFINIE and PEAU DE LUMIERE MAGIQUE eau de parfum fragrances resonate as unexpected reflections of Philippe Starck's creative universe. "Perfume tells a story, an extraordinary story that transports us to an elsewhere". PhS

PEAU DE NUIT INFINIE Eau de parfum for men

"Peau de Nuit Infinie is a JOURNEY to an unknown, infinite universe, a fragrance that takes you to a place you have never been, from the depth of darkness to dusky twilight." Philippe Starck

In the dark beauty of the night, a man is alone with himself. Facing his own reflection, he asks himself questions and explores the deepest reaches of his soul. With humility and certain gravity, he compares himself to, this immensity beyond his being: a charming, moving and captivating inner shadow emerges.

IT'S THE NIGHT, THE FRAGRANCE OF DARK SHADOW

But how can one hold on to the night? What is the scent of this concealed and infinite mysterious place?

Philippe Starck grasped these, intangible memories of dreams to create Peau de Nuit Infinie, transforming an evocation into a feeling and thrill into emotion.

INTIMACY, MINERALITY, MASCULINITY, DENSITY, SOLEMNITY

One might think that there is nothing to the night, but, it's of absolute richness especially in the dusky twilight. Something special is already happening, a glimmer of light flickering like a PROMISE."

Perfume creation

DELPHINE LEBEAU is the renowned master perfumer, known for her audacity, her extractions with notes of root, wood and iron, with whom Philippe Starck initiated a creative and diagonal conversation to transcript his vision of an Infinite Night.

"To convey this vision, I had to venture into Philippe Starck's world of emotions. Each of my choices was guided by EMOTION carried by raw materials. Peau de Nuit Infinie reveals the depth of a dark, impenetrable and unforgettable night. Beyond the night shadows, its scent is one of an introspective journey, rich with countless possibilities."

A story to be worn on the skin

A mineral chord, which, beyond its initial cold and peaceful semblance, is brimming with an infinite quest for purity, revealed by its freshness, the vibrancy of bergamot and lemon/ambergris and fossilised wood pay tribute to eternally immortalised beauty/a leathery hint, with an animal yet velvety feel, a touch of dense, dark and sensual tenderness.

Peau de Nuit Infinie invites you to dream on a journey to infinity, to mysterious and sensual unknown worlds.

PEAU DE LUMIERE MAGIQUE

Eau de parfum for woman

“Peau de Lumière Magique initially feels a few drops of almost nothing, but their fantastic power sheds light on what is essential: life, a furtive vision of happiness, of a place full of light and wonder.” Philippe Starck

A WOMAN facing life, facing her life. Her dreams are still her future. As if haloed by a divine grace, she enters the light, dazzled and DAZZLING, heading towards a happy future, an unexpected bout of faith.

IT'S THE LIGHT, THE FRAGRANCE OF RADIATING SHADOW

The white moment when light reveals the inexpressible, life at sunrise, is beautiful and rare. But what perfume can reflect this dazzling moment in which everything begins?

“I wanted to inhale this light, the extremely intense ETHER of virtually nothing, which is so powerful. Everything can happen, for even dazzled, we are overwhelmed by an inner force that opens our eyes to a bright and warm future. It is like a furtive glimpse of future happiness, a DELIGHT. And, day after day, the sun rises bright and the perfume is always there with the same beauty. To wake up to the same perfume, as with our unique love, is divine.” PhS

VIBRANCY, RADIANCE, FEMINITY, REVELATION, HOPE

One might think that there is nothing to light, but “it is so powerful that nothing would exist without light. Everything can be right in front of you, but without light, nothing can be found or seen. Light reveals life, it is EXTRAORDINARILY dazzling.” PhS

Perfume creation

To create Peau de Lumière Magique, Philippe Starck commissioned the creative master perfumer Daphné Bugey, who masters her art with talent and imagination. They had previously worked together to create Peau de Pierre. “I was inspired by light: candid, dazzling, intense. Light spreads everywhere, just like perfume. White FLOWERS, innocent yet potent, contrast with chiaroscuro treated wood to create this shining halo of light.” Daphné Bugey

A story to be worn on the skin

A sparkling floral and fresh chord, with citrus and peppery notes/instant flash like a dazzling ray of zenithal light created from a duo of white flowers, Indian jasmine and ginger blossoms/a golden halo with a touch of patchouli, unveiling woody and mysterious radiance.

Peau de Lumière Magique is the very essence of a perfume that, like the daily magic of human intelligence, opens our senses to extraordinary worlds.

A COLLECTION OF FRAGRANCES

In line with the previous offerings of the collection, the Peau de Nuit Infinie and Peau de Lumière Magique bottles have kept a sober design, adorned this time with a metallic touch of gold or silver. They are harmonious and intriguing in their flowing shape: one the blue-violet shade of the night sky, the other as light as the rising sun. Each box features a male or female face, whose gaze is only partially revealed, as captured by photographer Dominique Issermann.
